CONSIDERATIONS

I have considered the emotional and financial investment as well as the time and effort necessary to own a dog. I have the devotion, time and money to provide the love, veterinary care, proper diet, shelter and exercise in order to ensure that my dog is well cared for. In anticipation of owning a dog, I have also considered the following:

Other household members are excited about getting a dog. Yes No

I am able to make a long-term commitment to care for my dog for its entire life span, which could be as much as 10 to 20 years. Yes No

I have a regular vet and/or identified a veterinarian for my dog. Yes No

I have inspected my fencing, landscaping, types of plants, patio enclosure, gates etc to ensure all is appropriate and safe for my new dog. Yes No

I have taken the precaution to notify any service individuals who will access my yard, that we will have a new pet who may be in the yard. Yes No

I have identified a resource(s) who can care for my dog when I am away for extended periods of time. Yes No

I plan to license my dog and have him/her wear a collar with ID tag. Yes No

I understand that I must register my new dog with the company who micro chipped him/her. Yes No

I am not aware of (1) anyone in my household or (2) anyone who comes to my home frequently, who has or may have allergies to animals. Yes No

I am willing to live with hair on my furniture, stains on my rugs. Yes No

I have a plan, with regard to my dog, if I/my family moved. Yes No
